

Kicking Stroke into touch

Dr Paul Syme

Chairman of the Guideline Development group on the Management of patients with Stroke

Introduction

- Welcome
- Importance of Stroke to Scottish Health
- Remit of the new stroke guideline
- Challenges

Recognition, rapid access to service, rapid treatment-time is brain

Stroke needs to be treated as an emergency

- Design of Stroke services

-All ages, both sexes, wide variation in presentation service flexibility is the key

Sessions

Session 1

- Management of patients with stroke or TIA: assessment, investigation, immediate management and secondary prevention
- Patient version of this guideline

Session 2

- Budgetary implications
- Revised Stroke Standards
- National Key performance indicators for acute stroke

